Dear Ms. Williams:

I applaud Harrisburg City Council's decision to seek help from competent financial advisors to help review the receiver's plan. The decisions this Council is being asked to make will affect the City for decades to come. So, it's critical that there is an full understanding of the short and long term impact of the plan and all the fine points it entails. There is no need to rush to judgment! A careful and deliberative process is required and I am both hopeful and confident that Council will pursue one.

The plan is complex and comprehensive. I intend to make further comments and observations over the course of time to help inform and protect the interests of the citizens of Harrisburg.

Best regards,
